

Lent at St. Augustine's

During Lent Christians are invited into the observance of this holy season by self-examination and repentance; by prayer, fasting, and self-denial; and by reading and meditating on God's holy Word. These are some of the worship and program offerings we have this year to help you and our community observe a holy Lent this year.

Pray with us

- + Morning Prayer, Tuesday- Friday, 9:00 am in the Church – Pray the Daily Office with Mother Jenny during the week. This brief prayer service lasts approximately 20 minutes and includes praying the Psalms and other readings from Holy Scripture.

Worship with us

- + Holy Eucharist Rite 2 with Music, Sundays, 8:30 am and 10:30 am - During Sundays in Lent we will reflect on the season through scripture, prayer, music and gathering as the Christ's body, the Church, at the altar in sharing the Eucharist. Sunday School and Childcare are offered at the 10:30 am service.
- + Stations of the Cross, Wednesdays, 7:00 pm in the Church – Walk the way of the Cross with members of our community during this penitential season.

Read with us

Book Study, I'm Still Here: Black Dignity in a World Made for Whiteness, by Austin Channing Brown - During the season of Lent, St. Augustine's is joining the Episcopal Diocese of New York in its Year of Apology as we examine the role our Diocese and communities of faith played in the slave trade and racial injustice. I'm Still Here is a provocative and insightful account of one woman's experience of being a black woman in a church and society that privileges whiteness. Starting on March 12th our Brown Bag series will study this book from 12 pm-1 pm on Thursdays through April 2nd. We will also have two Book Study gatherings to discuss I'm Still Here on Sunday, March 29th at 3:00 pm and Thursday, April 2nd at 7:00 pm for those who cannot attend the Brown Bag series.
